

ICOMIA MEMBER VALUE PROPOSITION

Join the global voice of the recreational marine industry.

ICOMIA brings together national marine associations and industry organisations from around the world to create a stronger, more influential global recreational boating sector.

ABOUT ICOMIA

A global network. A collective voice. A stronger industry.

As an ICOMIA member, you become part of an international network working collaboratively to shape policy, improve standards, share knowledge and unlock opportunities that benefit your members, your industry and the wider marine community.

Whether your organisation represents manufacturers, marinas, boat builders, distributors, superyacht businesses or the wider recreational boating industry, ICOMIA provides the global platform to help you deliver greater value to your members.

01

Global advocacy and representation

Your industry deserves a voice on the international stage.

ICOMIA represents the recreational marine industry at the International Maritime Organization (IMO) and other influential global bodies, ensuring the sector's interests are considered as international regulations evolve.

- International representation on key regulatory and policy issues.
- Early insight into global legislation and regulatory developments.
- Opportunities to contribute through specialist committees and working groups.
- A stronger collective voice alongside leading marine associations worldwide.

Shape the future of recreational boating

ICOMIA members don't simply respond to change — they help create it.

Through technical committees, sustainability initiatives and specialist working groups, members collaborate on the issues that will define the future of boating.

- Sustainability and decarbonisation
- Technical standards
- Safety and compliance
- Marina development
- Superyacht refit and operations
- Market development
- International trade
